

Reglindis Rauca

www.reglindisrauca.de

born 1967 in Plauen, Germany (GDR)
1992-2011 lived in Düsseldorf, now Potsdam

Professions:

Writer
Lecturer
Actress

Writer

- since 2003 literary work.
Discovery and involvement with the NS-crimes of my grandfather Helmut Rauca.
- 2008 debut novel Vuchelbeerbaamland, by Mitteldeutscher Verlag, Germany. The novel deals also with the crimes of my grandfather and the long silence and suppression within my family. The reactions of my family were ambivalent and antagonistic.
- Interviews, reports and reviews in German-speaking area, i.a.:
 - 2009 TV report/ interview about my discovery of NS-crimes grandfather, WDR frauTV
<https://youtu.be/Yh4bbAVnF5U>
 - trans-regional and regional press
<http://www.reglindisrauca.de/presse-medien>
- since 2008 readings and discussions in Germany for adults and school pupils
- 2014 second novel Fatzvogel, by Mitteldeutscher Verlag, Germany (follow-up)

Awards

- 2017 International scholarship of federal state Brandenburg in department literature/dramatic art/translation
- 2008 Award for literature of state capital Düsseldorf

Lecturer

- since 2009 docent for creative writing for school pupils
- since 2011 lecturer for applied rhetoric, voice and speech for corporations and institutions
- since 2014 lecturer for communication and language, colleges for social pedagogy

Actress

- 1989-1993 study of dramatic arts in Berlin and Düsseldorf, i.a. academy of dramatic art „Ernst Busch“ Berlin.
- 1990-2007 engagements as actress and member of companys at municipal theatres, for example Neue Bühne Senftenberg, Düsseldorfer Schauspielhaus, Westfälische Kammerspiele Paderborn.
- leading roles in classical and modern plays, for example in Pippi Longstocking by Lindgren, Sickness of Youth by Bruckner, Miss Julie by Strindberg. Involvement with dramatic art and literature.